

Environmental Friends

KS3

Thursday - English

Answer this question.

“It is important for large institutions like schools to be environmentally friendly as these have a large impact on the environment and young people’s habits.”

Write an article for your school newspaper about your school’s attempts to reduce their energy usage.

You should think carefully about what features of a newspaper article you need.

Also think carefully about the words and language used.